

Gifted and Talented – Self Nomination Form

Students should complete this form if they believe they are performing well above grade level and/or are demonstrating exceptional strengths or talents. This indicates that they would recommend their performance and achievement be reviewed for eligibility for gifted education services.

Upon receiving this form, the AIG team will consult and analyze test and performance data to determine if additional assessments are warranted and if the criteria for formal identification have been met. The results of the screening process will be shared with the student, their parents, and teachers.

I have goals for when I grow up.
I am an enthusiastic learner and highly curious.
I am persistent in pursuing self-selected tasks (like going to the library to research topics and learn more)
I complete tasks in a timely manner.
I am interested in understanding myself and others. I can motivate others.
I am able to express my thoughts and ideas clearly using precise language.
I am flexible in my thinking. I can adapt to situations in the interest of a group. I don't withdraw when things aren't going my way.
I am a natural leader. I can organize and lead groups well.
I already know most of the things taught in school.
I am very observant- I only need to do something once or twice to master it.

I am able to draw inferences and make generalizations easily. I can see unusual relationships that others don't always pick up on.
I think things through in a logical manner. I think critically and come up with plausible answers.
I score in the top 5% on my assignments and tests.
I enjoy intellectually challenging activities (logic puzzles, difficult math problems, creative writing, etc)
I am highly critical of my own academic performance- I want everything to be perfect.
I ask in-depth questions regarding my learning.
I can often solve problems in unusual ways- I can adapt a strategy easily if it's not working.
I create and/or produce elaborate details in academic or recreational activities (writing, design, art, etc)
I can use everyday materials in new and exciting ways.
I create wild, sometimes seemingly silly ideas easily
I self-engage in creative hobbies (music, drama, performance, art, imaginative play, etc)
I display original talent in art, music, writing, dancing, acting, etc.
I am emotionally deep..
I am good at improvisation.

Other factors for consideration....
