

Inviting Applications for the McClure Award—Haywood for Participation in:

Global Teachers: Singapore & Malaysia

Singapore has long been acknowledged for its leadership in education and mathematic scores. In contrast, Malaysia's ethnic and religious diversity offer an interesting insight into urban education.

2015 Professional Development Program for Educators

Program Description: Global Teachers to Singapore and Malaysia is a professional development program for K-12 educators that will allow them to explore technological innovation, STEM approach and urban education, as well as gain an enhanced awareness of Singapore and Malaysia's history, culture and education system. The program will include site visits to schools, non-profit organizations, businesses, and cultural and historic sites.

Program Components:

- Program orientation (April 27, 2015)
- Three webinars between the orientation and the program in Singapore
- Study program in Singapore & Malaysia (July 10-21, 2015)
- A follow-up workshop (October 10, 2015)

The McClure Award fully covers the program fee of $6,000.

Eligibility: K-12 teachers from Haywood County Schools are eligible. We encourage teachers from all subject areas and grade levels to apply.

Applications are due March 6, 2015!
